Executive Seminar Room
Faculty of Law, UWI Mona

Marc Jones is an Attorney-at-Law and Legal Officer at the Fair Trading Commission. Since being admitted to the Bar in 2010, he has gained experience in civil and commercial litigation at all tiers of the higher judiciary in Jamaica, including the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

As a Legal Officer at the Commission, Marc frequently advises on regulatory compliance issues under the Fair Competition Act, which arise in relation to mergers and acquisitions, sale and distribution contracts, and promotional and advertising arrangements. His regulatory experience also includes work for the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS) in the field of consumer protection.

Marc is also the holder of a Masters in Business Administration (with distinction) from the Mona School of Business and Management. His areas of focus included corporate finance, international business management and marketing strategy.
